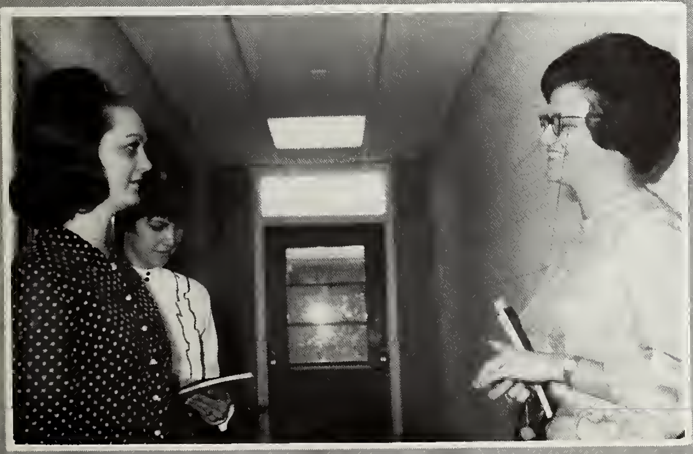
VISITOR



this was our year . . .

Sure, we studied and crammed for finals, but the honorable student body of I.J.C. enjoyed itself this year. We were glad to get back together—to renew social life—scream at the ball games—greet old friends—meet more.

The auditorium at assembly . . . football games in 85 degree weather one weekend, 30 degrees the next . . . writing themes . . . impromptu gatherings of every form. These and more are expressed on these pages.

this was our year

and we loved it! We can now remember as we see before us our year of 1969-70.

it is for the freshmen to question . . .

. . . Hey, who's Miss Nick? . . . what's wrong with white socks? . . . TO RE-ESTABLISH EQUILIBRIUM AFTER . . . Bald! They've stripped me of my masculinity . . . a beanie! . . . TO DOUBT . . . where did you say this food comes from? . . . Oh, I thought that was a long shirt . . . BUT HE LEARNS . . . a coke cup is no great disguise . . . I made a .85 and that's with phys. ed. . . . to conform but scream individuality . . . TO DECIDE AND JUSTIFY . . . if I had athlete's foot maybe I could see wearing socks in the spring . . . MONOTONY'S HOLD GROWS STRONGER, BUT SALVATION COMES WITH SPRING . . . is that really sunshine? . . . you should have seen that final! . . . I wonder . . .

it is for the sophomore to answer . . .

. . . the man in the hat? That's our president . . . No, the girls' dorm doesn't have an alarm . . . MEET DEFEAT BUT REMAIN UNDEFEATED . . . that's wrong . . . and . . . yes, sir, I do want to graduate . . . lots of famous people wore beards . . . HE IS AT THE END OF A TWO YEAR SUFFRAGE . . . it's all over but the shouting . . . two years and I don't know any more than I did . . .READY AND WILLING TO MEET THE WORLD OUTSIDE . . . guess I'll go on to school maybe State or Ole Miss . . . the draft . . . go all the way over there alone? . . . HE CAME, HE SAW, HE CONQUERED???

IT IS FOR THE FACULTY TO GRIN AND BEAR IT ... this is the fifth time his grandmother has died ... it is only growing pains ... this hurts you more than it does me ... HE FACES HIS STUDENT WITH A CHEERFUL OUTLOOK ... if you don't memorize the notes I gave you, forget it! ... 65 is the cut off grade ... TO REALIZE HIS FAULTS ... now, I just can't satisfy everyone ... some of these dresses! ... when are you going to get a haircut, son? ... we just don't do that ... TO GAIN ADDITIONAL KNOWLEDGE THROUGH EXPERIENCES ... you wouldn't believe some of these answers ... HE STEADIES HIS HANDS, STANDS ERECT, FORCES A SMILE, AND THINKS "OH, HAVE I GOT A HEADACHE!"—

IAHS

The job is over now, but September was only the beginning of involvement . . . the class of '70 came through . . . Homecoming excitement . . . what was that score again? . . . Juniors got those rings that meant so much . . . Seniors got their caps and gowns which meant even more . . . Sophomores got to move up one section for next year's pep rallies (big deal?) . . . the year that made us scream, "We're No. 1!" . . . the nine months of total involvement . . . this was the year that was . . . and it was a very good year . . . this was '70.

Boys' State
Girls' State

The youth of today is the adult of tomorrow and the adult of tomorrow will soon be the voter of today. The governed, the governing and the governor—these were the areas covered at Boys' State in Hinds and Girls' State in Bellehaven. In May, 1969, Dana Graham, Jan West, Rosa Lee Harden, and Karen Steele represented Fulton at Girls' State. Representing Fulton at Boys' State were Lanny Sheffield, Gary Wilson, Robin Rodgers, and Jerry Franks.

ARIES
ARIES

The year of '69-'70 was a year of challenge and change. We will remember this year by the events that have happened. As Fall faded into winter, we saw our football team compile a 10-1 record. This led us to the title of Tombigbee Conference Co-Champions. Glen, Kenny, Donna, and David proved that "Democracy Can Work." Not only did we crown the Most Beautiful girl, but also the Most Beautiful boy. Time didn't stand still and '69 turned into '70. The first semester closed and finals were the fate of all. Second semester was a second chance for all. Everyone felt that the Senior play was a success. Spring Holidays were entirely too short. Caps and gowns were ordered and invitations were received. There was soon to be another class to pass through the doors of I.A.H.S.—the class of '70. We are grateful for the year 1970.

The End.
